

WALTON VISIT

WYCOMBE Wanderers take on Walton and Hersham tonight (Tuesday) in a friendly at Loakes Park. Although the Surrey club have struggled a little in Division Two of the Rothmans Isthmian League this season, they produced a brilliant performance in the F.A. Cup this term when they held Crystal Palace to only 1-0 at Selhurst Park — and Palace, of course, are still in the competition!

This friendly will give the Blues some much needed practise before Saturday's league trip to Sutton, who pulled off a surprise 2-1 win at Hendon last week. Paul Griffiths, a full back who was with Wycombe last season, is expected to be in the Walton side.
